For Best Youth Interest Coverage

Times-Record Wins Award

The Times and Record was cited last week for its outstanding coverage of Teen and youth news by the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

A first place award for "Best Youth Interest Coverage" by weekly newspapers was presented to publisher James N. Harrah by Gov. Edmund G. "Pat" Brown Saturday morning at the annual awards breakfast of the CNPA at the Jack Tar Hotel in San Francisco.

Comments by the judges on the entry submitted by the Times and Record were: "Broad coverage of youth activities plus excellent quality of writing. Content appeal, both to youth and parents, is broad, with students doing the writing."

The award given the Times and Record was in one of several classifications made annually by CNPA in a contest open to newspaper throughout California. Judging is done by classifications as to frequency of publication and circulation. The Los Angeles Sentinel received an honorable mention in the Youth Interest category.

More than 400 publishers and newspaper executives from all over California were in attendance at the annual convention last weekend.

Daly City Lions Saved Aching Backs

The Daly City-Colma Lions are experiencing mixed emotions about a project at Thornton Beach. What appeared to be a typical Lions Club community service won't be necessary. But sighs of relief are heard when it is realized the Lions will be saved aching backs and sore muscles.

A letter of inquiry has revealed the State Division of Parks and Recreation has plans made to construct a footpath or stairway from the new parking area down to the broad beach some hundred feet below. The Lions have been considering undertaking the project as a community service.

Lion President Ted Weibel recently received the following letter:
Department of Parks and Recreation
1125 Tenth Street
Sacramento
Feb. 7, 1963

Mr. H. Z. Weibel
1056 Skyline Drive
Daly City, California
Dear Mr. Weibel:

I do not regret to inform you that the project which you suggest in your letter of February 1 will be accomplished fact within the next year plus a month or two. Contracts have gone to Public Works for bids for the work which you suggest. Nonetheless, we do regret not being able in this particular instance to accept your community and most considered offer. Let us place the letter on file here—and I do not mean in a file drawer, but on an active file—in case there is some other project in the future toward which the Lions can contribute.

Sincerely,
Alfred M. Calais

S.S.F. Approves New Industry

The Proter Steel company and the Gilmore Liqueur company received approval to locate in South San Francisco from city commissioners Monday night.

The Gilmore Liqueur plant to be located at Littlefield and Utah avenues was given unanimous acceptance, while the commissioners split their vote 5-1 over the steel factory.

Dissension developed out of the fact that one commissioner felt that the city had been presented with too few factual details to arrive at an informed decision.

This company processes scrap metal received from the Thermite Company, grinding it into small pellets.

The difference of opinion revolved around the possibility that the noise level of this process would be sufficient to prove disturbing to nearby offices. Permission to initiate operations was granted with the provision that consultants would be hired by the city if complaints were made.

S.S.F. Facelifting

Phase two of South San Francisco's City-wide Beautification Program was completed recently with the acceptance of landscaping and irrigation of some of the city's traffic islands according to Recreation and Parks Superintendent Bob Maxey.

The major face lifting job, designed to beautify the traffic islands on Capay Circle, Lomitas Avenue, Elm Court, Spruce Avenue, Beach Avenue, Maple Avenue, and Spruce and Maple Avenues, and eliminate a constant maintenance problem, was installed by Heuttig and Schromm, Landscape Contractors from Palo Alto.

The project, accomplished with funds derived from the city's sales tax revenues, will cost approximately $22,000 and is the second of a series of City-wide Beautification programs. Previously completed in the first step of the program were the Grand Avenue Pedestrian Walkway, Baden Avenue Parking lot, Brentwood Parking lot, additional downtown street planter boxes, the Hillside Recreation Center, and Francisco Terrace playlot.

pany, Third Bn, 23rd Marines. Major Stevens, a regular officer, is inspector-in-charge of the San Bruno unit. The journey was completed in 15 hours and 55 minutes.

Local Recruiters Plan 50-mile Hike

"Navy Chief Jack Kelly called up here and challenged me to a 50-mile hike. And I tell you, I'm up to it. I'm ready to go, I tell you."

With these words, Air Force Recruiting Sergeant Bernie Herbert, whose offices are at 6268 Mission street in Daly City, threw down the gauntlet to local Navy Recruiter Chief Kelly.

At the same time, the Marines got word and decided to join the race. Daly City Marine Recruiter Sgt. Barten D. DeWayne, called from his office at 6703 Mission and said he will enter the race. Beating the Navy and Air Force, he said, would be "no problem."

The men plan to take off Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday from near San Jose and march all the way to Daly City.

Chief Kelly got in his words against the Air Force's blast. "The Air Force can do it."

There was some discussion as to the type of footwear the groups would wear. Sgt. Herbert mused that he might try suede shoes. However, Marine Sgt. DeWayne said he would go regulation boots and with fatigues.

The men said they plan to make the march in less than 20 hours. Don Stepp, of Better Carpets in Daly City, said he would donate a carpet to the winner.

"Booting It" Now A National Frenzy

By Don Doe

In 1908, Teddy Roosevelt suggested that officers of the Marine Corps should be able to withstand the strain of a 50 mile hike.

At this point in our military history, however, the concept of mechanized warfare was in its infancy. And too, Teddy had never heard of bubble top limousines, super highways, barely sub-sonic airliners, or cars with more horses under the hood than he had commanded at San Juan Hill. It did not seem a totally prepos-

Cite Youths for Using Extinguisher

Thomas M. Daniels, 18, of San Francisco and Daniel J. Abrahamson, 19, of 736-87th street, Colma, were arrested in Daly City Saturday night and charged with squirting restaurant patrons with a fire extinguisher and with possession of alcohol.

Daly City police said the youths drove by Westlake Joe's and squirted patrons as they attempted to leave. Police said the youths had 13 cans of beer and two large fire extinguishers in their auto.

Brisbane Land Grab Disputed

The San Mateo County Boundary Commission has approved boundaries of the proposed annexation of most of the Bayshore City area by Daly City. At the same time, Brisbane has run into trouble in its attempt to annex the remainder of Bayshore City, which includes valuable industrial properties.

Superior Court Judge Frank W. Rose last week granted a hearing on a petition filed by attorney Thomas L. Bocci, who is retained by the Bayshore Sanitary District to fight the proposed Brisbane annexation.

Bocci has claimed in his petition that there are 12 or more residents in the area proposed to be annexed, and therefore Brisbane could not annex the land under the uninhabited territory act.

"In my opinion the court will invalidate the Brisbane grab which will permit Daly City to ultimately extend its municipal boundaries to the San Francisco Bay," Bocci commented.

"It is my intention as attorney for the Bayshore Sanitary District to satisfy the courts of the merits of our position," he said.

When Daly City filed its annexation maps, it included only the territory not already claimed by Brisbane. Now Daly City has been given the all-clear by the boundary commission to proceed with its annexation.

The next steps of procedure under the annexation act of 1913 will include publishing of an intent to annex in a newspaper, the authorization of a petition of annexation to be circulated in Bayshore City and a hearing on annexation.

Mayor Joseph Verducci of Daly City at the Monday council meeting commented that "I think the city council proposes to pursue this matter to its conclusion."

A Dead Man Is Resurrected In Colorado

Leonard J. Sifford of Daly City, a man declared legally dead on Dec. 7, 1961, has turned up in remarkably good health in Jackson, Colo.

This is good news for his wife, Mrs. Kathleen Sifford of Lathrop, San Joaquin County, but for Sifford's bad news.

Sifford, 46, must now pay his wife support money for two of their three children—or go to jail.

He may also be forced to repay San Joaquin County for some of the $7,648 his family has received in welfare funds during the past few years. Sifford walked out of the family home in Daly City nine years ago when he decided to take a vacation from his job as a land surveyor. He never came back.

Sifford's wife and three children moved to Lathrop. Sifford was resurrected by his Social Security card when his wife applied for Social Security benefits through her "late" husband. Investigators discovered the card was still in use in Colorado. The legally dead Sifford was working there as a lumberjack.

Boards Adopt Unity Policies

The Jefferson Elementary and High School boards Monday night adopted policies on unification.

Jefferson Elementary Board members adopted a policy approving the principal of unification, but opposing a plan proposed by the San Mateo County Committee on School Reorganization, and calling for Brisbane and Bayshore to join with it in a unified district.

The Jefferson High School board unanimously adopted a resolution to oppose any attempt to splinter the present Jefferson Union High School District.

The board confirmed a position taken last week that it will take under consideration any proposal which has the unanimous approval of the four contributing elementary school districts in the county.

The board feels that if the four elementary schools and the high school districts cannot come to any agreement that as far as district school boundaries are concerned the status quo should be maintained until that district submits a plan.

The county committee has Community Forum Series at Westmoor

The Community Forum Series sponsored by the Jefferson Union High School District will open tonight, Wednesday, February 13, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Westmoor High School.

Tonight's lecture, entitled "Introduction to the U.S.S.R.—centers around the theme, 'Understanding Russia — 1963.'" asked five school districts in Northern San Mateo County to agree on an alternate plan to the one it has proposed—calling for unification of the four elementary and one high school districts into one unit comprising the present boundaries of the Jefferson High School District.

The five districts will meet this evening for a second attempt to come up with a plan. A previous meeting ended in disagreement.

In other action, the Elementary Trustees authorized Daly City to continue with construction of a stairway from Alameda boulevard to Westlake Park. Trustees awarded a low bid to Modern Folding Doors for installation of a partition between two new classrooms at Colma school.

Frank Duffy, the jovial innkeeper at Duffy's Tavern, 6398 Mission, has an Irishman's knack for turning a phrase.

Duffy, who wears a brush haircut and has a twinkle in his eye, explained the vagaries of his profession. Women, he said, can be the meanest customers.

On the other hand, a drink, he added, can bring on the tears full blast.

Oddly enough, Duffy began working at his first profession taking care of the ladies.

He was a hairdresser. Later when his father became ill, Duffy took over the business. "It's a switch from pincurls to highballs," he commented.

"A bartender has to adapt," Duffy philosophized.

"You have to be mother, father, philosopher and psychiatrist—and everything else with them (customers). You don't have time for your own troubles. You listen to theirs."

Duffy is a family man. Married some 20 years to his wife, Leone, he has a son, Eugene, 15, and daughter, Dorothy, 18, who is married.

Frank Duffy has been a bartender 23 years. He has been a resident of Daly City 43 years. He has seen the town grow from a community of 6,000 population to its present size. He remembers when Daly City had a six-man police force and all-volunteer fire department.

Born in San Francisco, Duffy at one time used to help out the local police department taking pictures as a hobby. He is a sports fan, follows the Giants and 49ers and was immensely crushed when the locals lost the World Series. He walks with a slight limp. He suffered a bout with infantile paralysis when only 14 months old.

During the depression Duffy was out of work five years. He remembers that he got a job from John Marchbanks, local philanthropist and owner of the Record and Tanforan racetrack, parking cars and acting as usher at the race track.

"Being out of work," he said, "I had to start some kind of trade. I took up hair dressing."

A member of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, the church men's club and the men's club at Rioran High School, he now spends most of his time taking care of his bar. "It's a full-time job."

Booting It

(Continued from Page 1) duced with each presidential press release. But in their haste the shoe industrialists have neglected to ponder the ramifications of their plot. They are staggering.

Obviously, the Interstate highway system will soon be completely useless. The disgraced legislators that initiated it will be forced to give way to a new striding congress. Francis Scott Key will doubtless be replaced by John Philip Sousa.

The very foundations of state will be shaken. It will then be only a matter of time until the giant motor industry succumbs. Then gasoline companies, restaurant chains and construction companies will accompany their advertising agencies to a horrifying economic doom.

From this inevitable economic holocaust will emerge jobless millions. Unrest will seethe through the breadlines until total chaos results. Yet the nation's march toward this awful end seems beyond halting.

Clearly only one ray of hope remains.

A genuine leather economy.

(Continued from Page 1) concerning Russia's Foreign Policy and its implications to the free peoples of the world. Dr. Castleberry will lecture for approximately ninety minutes, after which time he will answer questions from the audience relating to his experiences.

The next lecture is scheduled for February 27, featuring Dr. Walter R. Hacker, Professor and Head of the Department at San Francisco State College. Dr. Hacker will speak on "Russia's Lands and the Many Peoples Who Inhabit Them."

Three more lectures will follow, entitled "Russia's Military Potential," March 6; "Soviet Political and Economic Systems," March 20; and "Soviet Foreign Policy," April 3.

All five lectures are tuition free to the general public.

Police Matron Assists in Dope Arrest

A South San Francisco police matron and radio dispatcher for the past year and a half, who has been posing as a madam of a Las Vegas brothel for the past three weeks, was a key to the arrest of a Salinas osteopath as a major source of illicit drugs in California.

Working with a state narcotics supervising agent, Mrs. Elise Anderson purchased drugs several times from Dr. Kenneth Blaylock on the excuse she had sinus trouble and needed "a little extra for the girls in Las Vegas."

After being picked up in a Salinas pharmacy while studying a copy of the state narcotics code, Dr. Blaylock was indicted by the Monterey grand jury on 26 counts of selling drugs to addicts.

Bail was set at $27,300 and Dr. Blaylock is to appear in Superior Court in April or May. Mrs. Anderson and policewoman Linda Buxton of Milpitas were picked by state narcotics agents to work with them in Monterey county investigations because it was feared that if any San Francisco policewomen were picked they would be recognized by the addict clients of Dr. Blaylock.

No Golfing... Please!

Recreation Directors at Benjamin Franklin and Garden Village Schools are asking the public to please refrain from using the fields at either school for their golfing practice. Serious accidents have resulted in other areas as well as a couple of fatalities. So we are asking the public to drive their golf balls on the driving range or the golf course.

Time is again rolling around for the Benjamin Franklin Recreation Department's annual Bowling League. The league is usually run after school at the Westlake Bowl one day per week. Boys and girls in the 7th and 8th grades are welcome to participate. As soon as final plans are made with the Westlake Bowl an announcement will be forthcoming. Look for our announcement in next week's paper or call Benjamin Franklin School recreation leaders for further information.

'Wandering Wanda' Gets 18-Month Sentence

Women spectators giggled and gasped as a 16-year old boy told of having relations with a 27-year-old South San Francisco mother of five children.

The woman, Wanda Alsdurf, was sent to jail for 18 months. Sentence was pronounced last Friday by Municipal Judge Charles Becker before whom she pleaded guilty Oct. 30 to two counts of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The jury told the judge it was unable to agree on a similar charge involving a 16-year old friend of the other youth.

The woman had previously pleaded guilty to an identical charge involving a 15-year-old boy with whom she ran away last December.

Brisbane Land

promised a trial on the merits of Bocci's case before Feb. 25.

375 Acres The proposed annexation would bring in 375 acres to Daly City and would add an additional assessed valuation of $4½ to $5 million dollars. The annexation would bring in 55 firms.

Daly City is disputing with Brisbane over annexation of Bayshore City properties including Crown Cork and Seal Company, 2650 Bayshore and Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

Officials of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce had told the Council in January that the annexation of Bayshore City lands was "our last chance."

Chamber Director Frank Mortorano urged the city to make a concerted effort to acquire Bayshore industrial property. The Chamber officials have been in favor of a "Greater Daly City" stretching from the Pacific Ocean to San Francisco Bay.

Earlier contempt proceedings sought by the Bayshore Sanitary District against the Brisbane City Council were thrown out of superior court. These proceedings were sought by Attorney Bocci because Brisbane council passed a resolution to start annexation proceedings despite the granting of a restraining order against annexation.

City attorney Paul Hupf pointed out that Brisbane has legal priority of annexation proceedings on Bayshore industrial lands because they started first.

Southern Pacific Railroad asked Brisbane to consider annexation of some 12 square miles of industrial land in Bayshore.

However, Attorney Tom Bocci for the Bayshore City interests said that Daly City would stand a good chance to annex more industrial properties if they can show that Daly City has more to offer in lower taxes.

Benefits from the products will provide funds for the PTA coordinating committee's welfare fund. Tickets are 50 cents each and are available from PTA organizations of the Jefferson School District.

Waitress Hurt in El Camino Crash

A Daly City waitress suffered bruises and head cuts early February 6 in a single-car crash on El Camino Real, near Oliver Cemetery in Colma. Treated at Junipero Serra Hospital was Miss Avis Hoover, 39, of 85 Citrus avenue.

Highway patrol officers said the woman lost control of her car in the northbound lane, ran off the road and struck a power pole.

Brownies at Sai-Wu Gardens

Members of Brownie Troop 586 recently enjoyed an evening dinner at Sai-Wu Gardens in Westlake. Following their dinner, the girls went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ryan, where they enjoyed a film on Japan, Korea and Okinawa taken by Ryan while on a trip to the Orient.

There was also an interesting display of Oriental items for the girls to view following the film. The members of the troop are Christine Blanchard, Marcia Bruno, Laurie Bussenius, Betsy Dvorsky, Lorie Elchinnoff, Margaret Milavi, Christine Picchi, Galya Ryan and Cynthia Toner.

Mothers accompanying the girls for the evening were Mrs. Paul Milani, Mrs. Clifford Ryan and Mrs. William Bussenius.

Lions View Films Taken in 1940

Daly City-Colma Lions took a trip into the past at their meeting last Wednesday when they viewed films taken in Daly City in 1940.

Shown were members of the Lions Club at their various jobs, as well as panoramic views of the Daly City area at that time.

Five members of the Lions Club in 1940 are still active: Bill Sweeney, John Ferrari, Elton McGraw, Larry Comer and Mel Battye.

Red Cross Nursing Services Announced

Red Cross nursing services announce two new classes for expectant parents to be taught at 1625 Van Ness avenue in San Francisco. An afternoon class is scheduled for 1 to 3 p.m. Tuesdays, starting on February 26. An evening class will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays, beginning March 4.

Prospective parents are invited to register for either of these free classes by calling the Red Cross at PR 6-1500, extension 337.

Beta Sig Bear Bust

A "bear bust" Valentine's Day venture, sponsored by Alpha Alpha Omicron chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be held February 15 at Hamm's Brewery in San Francisco.

Proceeds of the fund-raising event will be used to support the sorority's philanthropic and civil defense projects. Mrs. Ronald Spalding, sorority president, said a warm buffet will be served and entertainment is planned.

Alpha Alpha Omicron is anticipating presentation of its charter in April.

Low-Priced Tab For Alcoholics

A new plan for participation in the San Mateo County Council on Alcoholism, through low-priced sustaining memberships, was announced yesterday by Donald Hellbush, president.

Hellbush said the memberships are available to all interested county residents for $1 a month.

By payment of these dues, on a $12 annual basis, sustaining members can share, Hellbush said, in the council's program of assistance for alcoholics and education of the public concerning the disease—through the distribution of films, books and other materials to such recipients as schools, service organizations and local libraries.

Contributions from business and industry, groups and individuals also are helping to support the work of the council, sponsored by the San Mateo County TB Association.

Further information on sustaining memberships or other aspects of the council's operations may be obtained by the Alcoholism Information Center, 119 South Ellsworth avenue, San Mateo (DI 3-2322).

HEART DAYS FOR BUSINESS CAMPAIGN OPENS IN COUNTY

"This progress has stemmed from the result of heart research, public and professional education, all supported by business contributions to the Heart Fund," Pearson added. "During February Heart Month, during Heart-Days-for-Business in particular, when volunteers will be calling on business and industry, this opportunity to accelerate the programs through financial support is being presented."

Continuing, Pearson said that "this support by business and industry is a form of thoughtful, prudent decision-making for the health of your employees, just as you exercise care and judgment with other aspects of your business."

County co-chairmen in the Heart - Days - for - Business campaign are Dr. Mellgren C. Schroeder, San Carlos (South county); Judge Howard Hartley, San Mateo (North county); and F. Veterinary Clinic To Open March 1

The St. Francis Square veterinary clinic will open on March 1, operator Benjamin M. McWhinney, DVM, announced. The clinic, one of the few on the peninsula, will also offer limited hospital services. Emphasis, however, will be placed on home nursing rather than hospitalization.

Dr. McWhinney feels animals recover better in their own environment, rather than in a cage. A resident of San Francisco since 1926, Dr. McWhinney is an army veteran and a 1954 graduate of the University of California at Davis school of Veterinary Medicine.

Employed by the hospital staff of the SPCA for six years, for the last two years he was associated with Dr. Hans Albertson at Mission Pet Hospital, 720 Valencia, San Francisco. Dr. McWhinney is married and resides in Westlake with his wife, Myra and two daughters, Deborah, 10 and Nancy, 8. Dr. McWhinney announces he will be available for house calls.

FLAPPER CHORUS number will be one of the star attractions at the Thomas Edison PTA Founders Night festivities Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-use room. The program is a variety show and (from left) Danya Ward, Lorie Benson and Beverly Peachey, will be part of the act under the direction of Marsha Lynn Wilson.

BALROOM DANCERS — Jackie Caldwell and Jim Woodworth will liven things up with a dance routine this Thursday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-use room of Thomas Edison School. The program is a variety show "Remembering" in celebration of the school's Founders Day and third birthday celebration.

Brotherhood Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, Brotherhood Week, sponsored by the National Conference of Christians and Jews, gives freedom-loving people an opportunity to rededicate themselves as individuals to the basic ideals of respect for people and human rights, which are essential to our way of life; and

WHEREAS, the Fathers of our country defined the purpose of its founding to be "to form a more perfect union," and in the words of George Washington to "give to bigotry no sanction, to persecution no assistance"; and

WHEREAS, our way of life granted to us a heritage which we must safeguard for future generations is threatened by the forces of communism which would destroy our liberties;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joseph J. Verducci, mayor of the City of Daly City, do call upon our citizens to join with other Americans in the observance of the week of Washington's birthday, February 17-24, 1963, as BROTHERHOOD WEEK, a period to affirm anew and to rededicate ourselves to the practice of the brotherhood of man under the Fatherhood of God.

Terra Nova Matmen Win

By DON DOE

Before the best crowd of this season, Terra Nova's wrestlers defeated Westmoor in a tightly contested dual, 27-21, providing an exciting prelude to this week's NPL Wrestling Tournament.

Terra Nova initiated the match by garnering two decisions that Westmoor coach Bill Carr termed as "quite a shock." The Rams captured the lead almost immediately, however, as they won the decision and a pin in the 112 and 120 pound classes. The Tiger's Joseph dislocated his elbow in the next match, thus losing by default, but coach Roger Miller's team returned with a fine effort, taking four of the next five bouts.

Terra Nova's aggregation suffered a second injury as Humble, previously undefeated, re-injured his knee. In the 191 pound class, Mallick wrestled a hard fought match to decision Terra Nova's Goranson. This brought Westmoor within one point of the first place Tigers, thus leaving the team victory in the hands of the unopposed class.

The final match of the afternoon left the crowd of 300 limp as Lally of Terra Nova pinned his man. This victory allowed the black and gold to remain undefeated. Lally is not only undefeated but also has won all his matches by a pin.

Both mentors are looking for an excellently wrestled series at the league tournament to be held at the new Oceana gym Thursday and Friday. Although now holding sole retention of first place Terra Nova is not assured of their position, for the 3 points awarded the tournament winner could give second place South San Francisco the league title.

Westmoor's Bill Carr commented that South City does have the experience and requisite strength to win. He added that a Ram victory could give them a tie for the title.

Coach Roger Miller of Terra Nova stated that with his team up, he is "confident of taking the championship." The NPL Tournament remains unpredictable, however, as South San Francisco, boasting a 4 and 1 record has an acknowledgedly powerful squad. Carr also said that Jefferson can be "tough on any day."

As in dual meets, each match will consist of three two-minute periods. The scoring system used is identical to that used in many collegiate meets, as are the regulations governing permissible holds.

While remarking on the six way meet, Carr suggested that there was some confusion of scholastic wrestling with that shown on television. He added that in high school, like collegiate competition, "success depends on skill and not on acting ability." The result of this confusion appears to be a lack of spectator interest, a factor of much importance in individual competition, he continued.

Having been awarded one point for each league win, the teams will compete for the points (3-2-and 1) given to first, second and third place. The final point total will determine the team's standing in the league.

SF State Holds Football Clinic

Clark Shaughnessy, originator of the modern T formation and one of football's greatest strategists, will be the main speaker at the third annual San Francisco State College football clinic, Monday, June 17, through Friday, June 21, Joe Verducci, director of athletics, announced this week.

"It is a great honor and a pleasure to have Clark Shaughnessy at the clinic. Shaughnessy's impact and contributions to modern football on the nation's high schools, colleges, and professional teams have been dynamic and monumental," Verducci stated.

One unit of credit will be given. Tuition fee for the full week will be $11.50. All persons interested in attending the clinic, wishing further information, or reserving registration for the clinic are requested to contact Vic Rowen, head football coach, San Francisco State College, 1600 Holloway avenue, San Francisco, or phone JU 4-2300, extension 444.

A DECISION over Senses! Nova. This was the first at the Tiger gym that resulted in the completion of a perfect season for the victors.

NPL Basketball

Second Round Begins Friday

The second round of North Peninsula league basketball will get under way this Friday with NPL leader Westmoor hosting Oceana, Terra Nova invading the Jefferson home floor, and El Camino challenging South San Francisco.

Although the Westmoor Rams will enter the next round with a perfect league record, coach Tony Giamonna expects a tough battle to the wire.

An improved Tiger squad, led by scoring ace, Liewallen's 16 points trailed by only one digit at the half in last Friday's encounter, and were never out of reach until the final buzzer. Giamonna stated that the entire league has improved and that on a given night any team is capable of winning.

He added that Oceana's convincing defeat of El Camino, winning by 21 points, 53-32, is indicative of the caliber of play to be expected in the remaining contests, commenting that "coach Warren has brought them a long way."

While ice-cold against South City, the Ram mentor said that Jefferson is always up for their intra-district games. Further, South San Francisco, coming off their trouncing of the Indians last week "should have everything going for them. Giamonna finds his Ram squad improved with two transfers, Harper and Bill Vince newly available.

The Jeff's coach, Mike Orlich stated that "our shooting was atrocious" in their tilt with the Warriors last Friday.

Good Tennis Season Seen At South SF

Tennis coach Sheldon Winston of South San Francisco is expecting a successful season this year with the strongest team of his tenure of three years there.

A veteran-laden varsity will be led by Vic Escallier, Jim Eskelson, Edison Louie, Carl Durham, Terry Megna, John DeGraaf and John Ellsworth. Complementing this nucleus are more than 20 other players.

With El Camino having the only other team in the Northern Peninsula, their matches will not be league competition, per se.

Diablo hopes to find its own gym more friendly on Wednesday night against San Mateo and will concentrate on stopping the tall Bulldog front line of Bob O'Donnell (6-6), John Carmichael (6-5) and Mike Gilman (6-3). All are averaging in double figures and are good rebounders.

Burlingame high school grad O'Donnell broke loose for 21 points against Chabot last Friday, sinking ten field goals and a single free throw. Meanwhile, Gilman, a freshman from Woodside, hit his CSM career high with 18 points, and Serrano's John Carmichael meshed 12, including back-to-back buckets as San Mateo pulled away in the stretch.

San Mateo's Friday opponent, Oakland, is currently the league's hottest club with a four-game win streak going. Center Taft Jackson (6-7) is second in league scoring with a 17.8 average through eight conference games and holds the GGC single game scoring record of 28 points.

While coach Joe Schroeder's five hit the nets on 14 out of 36 attempts, the Jeffs spent a futile night bucketing only 3 out of 19 in the first half and 6 out of 21 in the second. Orlich stated that all shots were taken inside the sixteen foot mark.

Concerning the upcoming Terra Nova game, he said that although inexperienced they have "gotten much better as they've gone along." Hoping to stop the Tiger's Liewallen with their tenacious press, the Jeff mentor added that his Indians will be relying on Jones, who he termed "the best rebounder in the league," to control the boards.

The South San Francisco Warriors' 20 point decision

Benjamin Franklin Takes League Lead

Benjamin Franklin's eighth grade basketball team tied for the league lead Wednesday when they hosted the Colma Trojans and reversed an earlier defeat at the hands of the Trojans by downing them 35-24.

After Colma's 3-0 lead at the outset of the game although only leading by one or two points Ben. Franklin never trailed after that point. At the half, Benjamin Franklin led by a slim one point 12-11 score. Chip Tyson led the Falcons the third quarter with 7 points which was instrumental in helping his team to a 22-19 third quarter score. In the fourth quarter Benjamin Franklin scored 13 points to Colma's 5 to break the game wide open.

Steve Douglas, who played an outstanding game, scored 5 points in that fourth quarter. Tom Wuerthner, a transfer from Lodi scored 4 points followed by Steve Levenson.

Yo Yo Contest

The finals of the city's Yo Yo championship was held Saturday, February 9, at the War Memorial Community Center. Twelve playground champions competed on the stage of the War Memorial gymnasium for the honor of representing Daly City in the area finals.

Jerry Weiner of 1238 Southgate avenue, Daly City, compiled a total score of 90 points to be declared city champion. Behind Jerry, with 80 points, was Arthur Hermosilla from Marchbanks Park. Tennis Clinic At Ben Franklin

On Saturday, March 3, sign ups will be taken for a tennis clinic, to be held Saturday mornings at the Benjamin Franklin School, running for approximately four to five weeks.

The clinic will be co-sponsored by the Benjamin Franklin recreation department and the Jefferson Elementary School district. Barbara Rosenthal, secretary of the Youth Tennis Foundation in San Francisco, is making arrangements to provide tennis instructors and known tennis players to help with the clinic.

The Benjamin Franklin physical education instructors will be on hand to help, as well as volunteer parents who have some background in tennis.

The clinic is organized to serve boys and girls attending Benjamin Franklin School and the sign-ups will be limited due to the number of courts available and to provide a maximum amount of learning for those in attendance.

For more information, contact the physical education department at the school, or look for article in next week's Times.

Two of his victories were by throw and one by decision. He lost two decisions and was eliminated in the sixth round of competition. He earned a tie for fourth place.

North County's only two other entries were weight victims.

Entries for the San Jose State tourney:

Black Belt—Willy and Fred Cahill.

Brown Belts—Eddie Rodriguez, Joe Benetti, Joe Souza, Larry Medrano and Rick Ramirez.

White Belts—Richard Paganelli and Mel Untalan.

Top Car Builders In Nat'l Roadster Show

The nation's five top creative car-builders will vie in a special Tournament of Fame at the 15th annual Grand National Roadster Show opening this Friday, Feb. 15, in the Oakland Exposition Building.

Winning designer will receive an all-expense-paid trip for two to the Paris Auto Show as a car-building "ambassador of good will" from America, according to show manager-producer Al Slonaker.

Famed professional designers taking part include Darryl Starbird of Wichita, Kan., George Barris of North Hollywood, Bill Cushman of Monterey, Joe Wilhelm of San Jose and Joe Bailon of Hayward, Slonaker continued.

Other show features will highlight the world's premiere of Romeo Palamides' eerie space-rocket-powered "Mach 1" designed for 760 mph super-sonic land speeds, his giant 259.366-m.p.h. "Untouchable" jet-powered dragster and the Ford Motor Company's precedent-setting 1963 official "Rod and Custom" cars including Carroll Shelby's 175-m.p.h. "Cobra" sports car.

Approximately 150 other unique hand-built custom cars, "hot rods" and sports cars, customized power boats and personalized motorcycles will vie in 28 different classes during the ten-day Oakland auto extravaganza.

Doors will be open from 6 to 10 p. m. weekdays and from 1 to 10 p. m. Saturdays, Sundays and February 22, Washington's birthday.

Starbird has produced a three-wheeled, stick-steered, bubble-topped, hand-formed roadster featuring the "far-out" styling which has made the Kansas car-builder a national figure.

Barris is bidding for honors with his $18,000 "Astra," a hand-fashioned, magnesium-bodied coupe which required five years of engineering and construction to complete.

Features include a huge bottom air scoop that eliminates the front grille, single unit hood and front fenders to raise as one piece for full engine access and a large rear bumper-grille combination with unique lucite taillights. Cushman's low-slung, "bubble-dome"-topped creation has been dubbed "Silhouette" and used "years-ahead" styled ideas.

The Monterey creation highlights a parallel, extended "razor-edged" front protected by bar bumpers running up the fenders and a plexiglass top set so low that the top itself and the steering wheel must raise for entry or exit.

Wilhelm has named his creation "Wild Dream" for the unique styling and design of the aluminum-bodied roadster. All chassis and body components were hand-made for the San Jose car which features coil suspension on all four wheels.

Bailon's contender will be a novel vehicle that shows the full custom work elevating the Hayward builder to top professional status. The local creating is dubbed "El Tangerino" after a 30-coat color scheme utilizing tangerine and pearl.

Both Barris and Bailon have exhibited at the Oakland auto spectacle since 1949. Wilhelm, Cushman and Starbird gained fame after entering in 1957, 1959 and 1960, respectively.

Golden Gate Title A Six Way Battle

With six teams remaining in serious contention, the Golden Gate Conference again makes a hopeless attempt at order this week. Currently only two games separate the first six teams.

Feature attractions this week are College of San Mateo's games with Diablo Valley (5-3) at Concord and Wednesday night, and against Oakland (6-2) at Coyote Point on Friday.

San Mateo (5-3) trounced winless Shabot (0-8), 66-53, last Friday while Diablo and league-leader San Francisco were both beaten. CCSF's 69-59 home court loss to San Jose (4-4) left the Rams tied for the conference leadership at 4-2 with Oakland, 62-57 winner over visiting Diablo.

Footfill (4-4) remained tied with San Jose for fifth place by edging invading Contra Costa, 55-52.

Diablo fell to better balanced San Mateo, 62-58, at Coyote Point last month although 6-7 Viking center Mickey Toner meshed a total of 22 points. The big sophomore has just about kept up that average throughout the season, too, hitting 20.7 in eight GGC games to lead the league in scoring. Toner is finally receiving good support from 1962 all-Coast Conference guard Sam Coston.

Coston (6-2) made only three points (all charities) against CSM in that initial meeting but has recently boosted his average to an even 12 points per game, 12th best in the conference.

However, Diablo is seriously feeling the loss of 6-1 forward Tom Strain through mid-season graduation. Strain had a 10.8 league scoring average and the Vikings haven't won since he left, losing to both San Jose and Oakland last week—on the road.

Diablo hopes to find its own gym more friendly on Wednesday night against San Mateo and will concentrate on stopping the tall Bulldog front line of Bob O'Donnell (6-6), John Carmichael (6-5) and Mike Gilman (6-3). All are averaging in double figures and are good rebounders.

Burlingame high school grad O'Donnell broke loose for 21 points against Chabot last Friday, sinking ten field goals and a single free throw. Meanwhile, Gilman, a freshman from Woodside, hit his CSM career high with 18

Tight Battles In Rec League

Eighth Grade

Fettig out with a bye this week the New Pisa Reds remained on top of the 8th grade league with a 5 and 0 record. Moving into a tie for second place this week, we find the OLM Saints and the PAL Big Warriors with 4 and 1 tallies. Jim Davis of the Saints takes the Hero of the Week honor for his outstanding performance against the PAL Tigers. Davis hit 25 points in a tremendous game. Helping Davis with great rebounding and shooting was Mike Madigan with 16 points. Davis hit from outside and Madigan from the inside as the Saints clocked out a 52-47 victory over the Tigers. While playing a great game, the Tigers could not stop Davis and Madigan. Mike Wynne, Sal De Luca, Dave Erdmann, Steve Shoff, Tino Salzano, Mike Miller, Paul Farrens, Nick Kosturos and the rest of the Tigers fought all the way going down hard. The Saints earned this one.

Sharpshooting Matt De Bernardi and high scoring Telvis Jones battled it out this week as the PAL Big Warriors and their arch rivals, the PAL Lakers, clashed in league play. When the dust cleared, the Laker scalp hung from the Big Warrior teepee. De Bernardi acted as the Big Warrior scalping knife. Matt hit 20 points to Jones' 15. Brother Mark helped out with 6, Jeff Long 7, Ken Smith 5 and Reed Rosenberg 4. A total of 42 for the Big Warriors, 31 for the Lakers.

Coming up from the cellar this week with their first taste of blood are the OLM Alloy Cats. They brought along battle scars as they had to win in the last seconds of the game with the Ben Franklin Green Falcons. Budea of the Green Falcons did his best to keep the Alloy Cats down. He played a great game and hit 20 points but did not have the backing that the Alloy Cats gave to Parodi. Parodi hit 18 points but Burgess, Bandalin, Calegari and Chelone made the difference on the scoreboard. Final score Alloy Cats 37, Green Falcons 38.

The PAL Vultures picked one up via the forfeit route over the MHR Crusaders.

Sixth Grade

Beating down this week's threat to their league lead, Boyd Hillier's PAL Vikings remain on top of the 6th Grade League. Tom Belvin, Mike Myhovich, Steve Kirby and Ron Hackett of the PAL Warriors broke out in front of the Vikings in the first half to make their bid for an upset. Steady shooting by Gary Ciardella, Dave Hector, Joe March, Carl Campos and a 10-point spurge by Wayne Walorinta cut down Warrior hopes. The Vikings caught up, passed and went ahead 35-24 in their win over the PAL Warriors.

Steve Roche and Russ Hampton get the major share of the credit for turning back the Sherith Israel Knights in their bid for 2nd place position. The Knights and the OLM Hawks were tied with a 3 and 1 record. Roche stuffed 16 big points through the hoop and teammate Hampton hammered it for 11. Arnke, Cpieth and Antaccoli all helped out the Hawks cause.

The game was nip and tuck as both teams were tied at the end of the first period thru the second period. The end of the 3rd period saw the Knights with a one-point lead. Then the roof fell in as the Hawks hit 15 points in the final period for a 38-30 victory. Strauss of the Knights kept them sparked all the way with fine shooting. He hit 16 points.

The Bender Roofing Cats handled the OLM Hilltoppers with ease rolling by them 38-7. Abe Shaffer again starred for the Cats with 11 points. Getchel, Graham, Carrara, Polonsky, Stewart, Litman, Abbott and Mc Guigan hit well in the win. Lujan of OLM played well for the losers.

Upsetting the Holy Angels Colts this week was the PAL Jets in a real squeaker 28-25. The Colts led at the end of the 1st half but Ron Papes changed that in the 3rd period. Papes totaled 12 points for the game. Tom Scott hit 12 for the losing Colts. Brandlorg, Long, Themoleas, Smith and Wendt fought the good fight to win out over the always tough Colts.

Seventh Grade

The 7th Grade League is all tied up in a 3 way tie for the league lead. Coming out in the top spot this week were the BYA Aero Motors team, the PAL Bears and the New Pisa Blues.

BYA Aero Motors came from behind the BYA Hotshots to pull the chestnut out of the fire with a 33-22 win. Credit for the win should go to the Aero Motors defense as it held the Hotshots to only 8 points for the whole 2nd half. Stang, Noffsinger, Witecher, Yerby, Anjale, Brenk, Feldman and Plyer all hit for the Aero Motors team. Grossman and Deal were high for the Hotshots.

Grady Proctor was the big man for the PAL Bears in their win over the OLM Golds. Proctor came up with a big 13-point contribution to the win. Right behind Proctor was Dennis Smith with 10 points. Guddel hit 10 points for the Golds as they lost 46-14.

Knocking the OLM Angels out of the running this week was Kollin Tong of the New Pisa Blues. Tong had a field day as he put his name on the basket with -18 points. Burns, Green and Ewing kept OLM out in front for the first half. Tony went to work in the 2nd half and led the game.

George "Silky" Garber came through again this week for the Ben Franklin White Falcons. Garber tallied 12 points as the White Falcons nailed the PAL Wildcats 27-12. Jim Williamson, Grant Fasley, Steve Back, Lance De Ros, MaMrio Sandoval, Larry Londess and Wayne Smith all helped keep the Wildcat's spring down while hitting the hoop.

Graves led the MHR Chiefs to a win over the BYA Matadors 33-18. Bray of the Matadors was high point man of the game with 9.

Fifth Grade

Finding high in the top spot in the 5th Grade League, the OLM Gaels breezed by the OLM Bumble Bees this week 40-2. The Gaels appear to be the best team in the history of the 5th Grade League. Balance seems to be their secret. Every man on their club is a shooter and a good one. Becker, Gordon, Gishinick, O'Donnell, Churchwell, Sullivan, Sorriotti, MaMrtin and Pidgeon all made friends with the hoop this week. This is quite a task as the Bumble Bees, while not a high scoring team, always show a fighting defense right down to the final gun.

The PAL Eagles knocked off the Holy Angels Lions to hold their tie for second place with the OLM Dons. Shaking off their stunning defeat at the hands of the Gaels last week, the Eagles took a 34-12 win from the Lions. Larry Belfrage led the Eagles with 11 points while Baletto hit 7. Taking another bump this week, the Pal Jaguars dropped one to the OLM Dons 17-7. Green and Hecht top the scoring with 6 each. The Jaguars again showed fight but little scoring power. They will do better as most of their team will return to the 5th grade next year.

SEA BOWL NEWS

The ladies have not disappointed anyone. This weekend at Sea Bowl has seen some of the most colorful teams in the North California area competing in the S.F.W.B.A. tournament. Scores have been running high for both teams and individuals.

However, it is the behind the scenes arranging that makes any event such as this a successful event. Sea Bowl wishes to thank personally these people for making the tournament a success: Betty Lester, Virginia Bunner, Bertha Anderson, Lory Adler, "Mom", and Estelle Hazelwood. We regret that the lack of space will not permit mentioning all those who worked for the success of this event.

Gardener's Checklist

- All rose pruning should be completed at the earliest possible time.
- Fuchsias may be pruned sometime in February. Figure on cutting them back at least a third of their size to promote plenty of new bloom wood.
- Hydrangeas should be cut back to about half their size. Unpruned hydrangeas become too leggy.
- House plants should be dunked, pot and all into a tub of water on occasion to insure complete soaking of the root ball.
- Most fruit trees need pruning now. Ask your nurseryman about procedure if you're in doubt.

Serra Bowl News

"It just can't be done," said Mr. Bowler, "nobody can start new bowling leagues after the winter season has been underway at least a month." Mike McDougall, manager of Serra Bowl, flushed, "Why not?" he asked calmly. Mr. Bowler patiently explained, "Because everyone who wants to bowl regularly is already signed up somewhere." McDougall ten somewhere." McDougall tensed, "...and besides," Mr. Bowler interrupted, "you won't have time to run an interesting season anyway. Why talk about it?" McDougall jumped up, "Right," he said, "why talk about it? We'll go out and do it!"

And, believe it or not, it got done. Since October 1st 1962, new "spring leagues" have been formed at Serra Bowl comprising over one hundred-and-thirty full teams! And that total is expected to increase by at least fifty-four more teams by the end of February.

Bill Jones, 152 average bowler, showed 'em how it's done last Monday in the POTS & PANS league by rolling exactly 100 pins over his average for a big 252 second game tally. Bill ended with 560 as he paced his team, the PinPushers, to a 2-1 win over the Tigers. Kim Furuya outdistanced all the men on her Brillos team with 235 and 541 and led them to a 2-1 win over the S.O.S. group. Don Gee, the long and tall lefty, led the whole shootin' match with torid 224—619 series but his Cleavers couldn't keep pace with the Road Runners who raced to a 2-1 victory.

Individual highs at a glance show Sal Maita blasting 245 in the PORTOLA DAD league as the White Hunters rolled over Western Tires for a 3 game sweep. Ed Seth found the range again in 4x4's MIXED action as he pounded out games of 223, 209, 177, and 212 for a fat 821 total to help his Do-Nutters grab all 4 wins over the Holiday Chevrolet team.

In the 750 NIGHT OWLS, Don Hansen pitched a nice 233 single while Lou Crosetti and Frank Puccini Jr. were not far behind with a 223 each. In the BANKERS league, Frank Rossio had the high game of the night with a sizzling 225.

FRANK FRED'S HINTS FOR BETTER BOWLING—Number 7.

LEARNING THE LANGUAGE — Your enjoyment of the game will be considerably increased as you learn to talk bowling in its own terms. Some common terms worth remembering are:

BABY SPLIT — The 2-7 or 3-10 railroads.

TURKEY — Three strikes in a row.

GUTTER BALL — A ball which drops off the lane into either "gutter."

MARK — Getting a strike or spare.

The terms in bowling are numerous and varied and many more will be dealt with in succeeding articles. Watch for them.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

One of Glamour magazines' "ten best dressed college girls," to be featured in their coming August issue, is Jefferson High School graduate (class of 1961) Linda Mayer of Daly City, who was just chosen to represent Cal. Western University of San Diego, where she is now attending school. Girls are selected on basis of figure, grooming, poise, clothes management and personality. An exciting time is in store for the girls chosen. They are flown to New York, model in a fashion show, are photographed for the coming issue and entertained at various social functions.

Brown-eyed Linda is not only beautiful but a talented artist as well. She paints in both oils and water colors and was awarded the achievement award in the field of fine arts when she was graduated from high school. She also represented her school on the Big "E" high school fashion board. While attending school, she appeared on television as a model and also in various Bay Area fashion shows.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kusber, long-time residents of Daly City, who reside at 60 Werner avenue.

Many years of dedicated service is represented by our community leader this week, whose enthusiasm and devotion for her community is a real inspiration to all who come in contact with her.

She has a genuine and heartfelt interest in youth and she has given many hours to their welfare. Since 1937, she has served on the recreation commission, is a member of the Jefferson High School District board of trustees and has served on many local PTA boards. She was honored with a national PTA life membership pin by the Jefferson High School PTA.

She was one of the three organizers of the Daly City Servicemen's Club during the war years and also helped organize the Well Baby Clinic. She has worked on every fund drive, and for two years served as Cancer Drive chairman. Other organizations to which she has devoted time include Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, and Daly City Fiftieth Anniversary Committee.

Whenever someone or some organization needs a helping hand, Ann Eason is there. We salute her as our community leader of the week. She lives at 199 Westlake avenue, has four children and five grandchildren.

All set for a busy schedule of social activities and meetings is a new board of officers of the Westlake Senior Citizens Group, who were elected last Wednesday. Re-elected was Mrs. Beatrice Bats, who will serve as president. Other officers include Mrs. Mildred Lockard, vice president; Eunice McDermott, secretary, and Willard Wagner, treasurer. Alyce Madsen will continue as director.

A grateful "thanks" to the community is expressed by members of the Village Co-operative Nursery School for the generous support given them in establishing their new school at 474 North Parkview in Daly City. To show off their new building Open House will be held on February 17 from 2 to 4 in the afternoon. Bring your little tots, Dad too, and plan to drop by. Refreshments will be served and hostesses (they'll be wearing a flower so you can easily spot them) include: Frances Avanzino, Bonnie Groper, Thelma Levinson, and Angie Caserva. Also present will be Director Kay Seghetti who will be happy to answer any questions you have about the school.

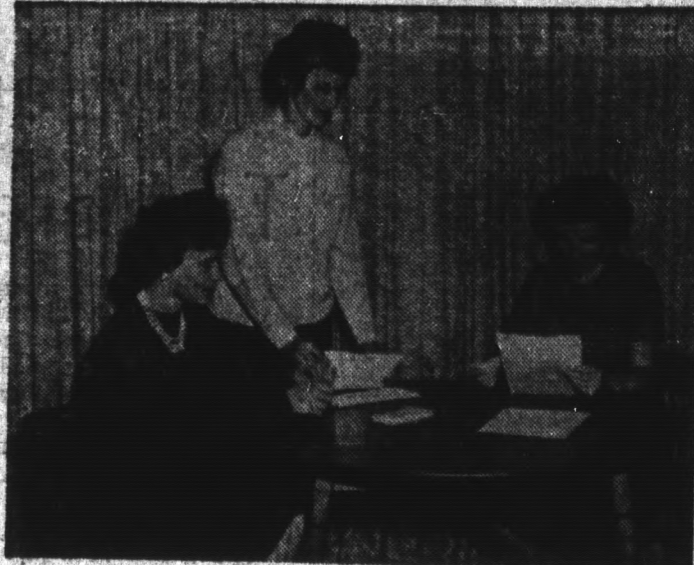

SOCIAL WHIRL: Socially speaking this is a most busy week for localites. Several fashion-luncheon shows are scheduled for Saturday afternoon and on Saturday evening a champagne dancing party in the beautiful ballroom of Carolands will honor the new members of the San Francisco Symphony Foundation from the Upper Peninsula.

A "Garden of Fashions" luncheon and fashion show will be held at the Hall of Flowers, 9th Ave. and Lincoln Way, this Saturday at 12:30 p.m. sponsored by Nileart Pageantry Unit of Islam Temple No. 25 Daughters of the Nile. General chairman is Mrs. Jack Ervin, and ticket chairman is Mrs. Edwin Bode, telephone SK 1-9464.

Brilliant authentic saris gleaming with gold threads (loaned by Consulate of India of San Francisco) will be worn by hostesses for this Saturday afternoon "Gardens of Shalimar" fashion show planned by Mothers Club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church. Wearing the dramatic costumes will be Joe Hettel, Rita Springmeyer, Gloria Cosman, Mary Calegari, Gloria Holmberg, Evelyn Radiotes, Lorraine Trentacosta, Georgina Denning and Doris Christen. Gloria Allen is chairman of the hostess group and member Doreen Brown, who lived for several years in India, will assist the girls in draping their saris.

MUSIC INN THE AIR: Musically speaking, localities are busy too with musical activities. Off to a flying start is the community orchestra and band now being organized. New members met last Thursday evening planning only to register, but they became so interested that before they knew it instruments and music was handed out and the group started playing together. There are still openings so if you play an instrument telephone Westlake Music Center (PL 6-2484) for more information. The next practice is scheduled for Feb. 14 at Westmoor High School.

If you sing, you are wanted too, to audition for the community chorus now being organized under the direction of Patti Stolz (telephone JU 6-2287). Her women's chorus, Daly City Belle-Tones sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department, were a sensation last week when they performed in costume before local PTA groups presenting "Songs of the Gilded Age." They will appear this Thursday evening before the Jefferson High PTA. Protege Judy Alameda (sophomore at Jeff) will be featured as soloist.

Music Critic Course

A workshop in the principles and practice of musical criticism is being offered at the Downtown Center, 540 Powell street in San Francisco on Wednesdays from 7 to 9:45 p.m., beginning February 13.

Westlake Women Plan March Rummage Sale

The next fund raising project on the agenda for the Westlake Catholic Women is the annual rummage sale to be held in the National Guard Armory, 14th and Mission streets, San Francisco, on March 4. Prior to the main sale, a pre-sale will be held in the Our Lady of Mercy parish hall on March 2.

Mrs. Frank Burns, chairman, announced that her co-chairmen will include Mrs. Vern Box, Mrs. John Champagne, equipment; Mrs. Vincent Baldochi, refreshments; Mrs. Donald Gordon and Mrs. Rodney Hamblin, solicitation, and Mrs. Joseph Moore, financial.

Many new items, as well as used and repaired merchandise, will be for sale in

Westlake PTA to 'Wig It' at Koffee Klatch

S. M. Family Service:

County Agency Ready When Friend Needed

The South San Francisco Women's Club building was the locale of a get-acquainted coffee hour presented recently by the Family Service Agency of San Mateo County.

Mrs. Robert N. Whitehead, member of the agency's board of directors and chairman of the recent Family Service Agency Fair benefit sales, welcomed a capacity audience of sales volunteers, clergymen, school nurses, psychologists, administrators and interested public officials and citizens from South San Francisco, Daly City, San Bruno and Pacific Heights.

Each volunteer who had served the Family Service Agency was presented a certificate by Mrs. Nathan Bolin, co-chairman of the sales.

Mrs. Vincent Brown, first vice president of the Family Service Agency, introduced a panel of speakers who appeared in behalf of the personal counseling services that this United Crusade agency offers in South San Francisco and San Mateo.

Initial speaker was Dr. Olga Bridgman, professor emerita of psychology of the University of California. She stressed that when a family needs a friend, because of a child's behavior problems or adjustment to physical or mental defects, the Family Service Agency is ready to be that friend in working toward solutions of the problems.

Dr. Henry Richman, pediatrician and staff member of Stanford University Medical School, pointed out that behind most children's problem behavior there is a problem of the parents' adjustment; and that solution of the parents' difficulties is the province of the Family Service Agency's efforts of service.

The Hon. Frank B. Blum, judge of the Superior Court of San Mateo County, pointed out the well known increase in the divorce rate and that the superior courts are set up, as an agency of the law, to grant divorces. The San Mateo County Court of Conciliation, one of but two in the state of California, is attempting to provide guidance toward solutions which will keep families together; but it remains to other resources, such as the Family Service Agency, to provide the longer term marital counseling which will keep these marriages together more happily. More hopefully, the Family Service Agency can prevent marital situations from becoming so bad that they reach the courts in the first place.

The agency's executive director, Mrs. Ruth Stewart, reported that clients of the agency represent all social, economic and racial groups of our community. The majority of the counseling problems revolve around marital and personality adjustments. There are several group sessions held currently in San Mateo, and some families meet as a group together with the counselor. All counselors have master degrees in social work and have several years' experience before joining the staff of the Family Service Agency.

In conclusion of the morning's program, Mrs. Whitehead pointed out that Family Service Agency volunteers had been able in the past two years to present $1,600 to the support of the Family Service Agency. She appealed for donations of time and or influence in organizing a permanent North County auxiliary for the purpose of informing the community of the agency services and gathering additional support.

Mrs. Emily Sheafe was introduced as chairman pro tem for the organization of this auxiliary and interested women were invited to contact her.

The South San Francisco Women's Club, as part of its program of community service, had donated use of their building for the coffee hour.

Special guest will be Miss Lucy Schulte, executive director of the San Francisco YWCA.

According to Mrs. Fox, the largest possible membership representation is desired at the annual party so as to make plans for bigger and better YWCA programs in North San Mateo County in the future.

YWCA Charts New Classes

A new session of YWCA sponsored classes for children and adults has just been announced, with new and continuing classes being offered starting the week of Feb. 25.

A new plan of pre-registration to avoid disappointments will be inaugurated with this six-week session for all classes. This system, which has been used for Creative Group Play, the nursery class, means that for continuing classes registration for the new session will take place at the last class of the current session, or by telephoning or in person at the Y Office during the week of Feb. 18.

For new classes, and for interested persons new to the Y, pre-registration will take place the week of Feb. 18 at the Y office, 375 South Mayfair in the Westlake Shopping Center, PL 6-7370. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Monday through Thursday, and 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. on Friday.

Among the classes to be offered for pre-school children will be creative group play, for which advance registration is absolutely required, swimming for mother and child, and basic dance, for which advance registration is urged in line with the new sign-up plan.

For the six to twelve year old child, ballet dancing, hula dancing, baton, and several new and continuing art classes will be given.

For adults, new and on-going classes will be offered in golf, hula dancing, self-improvement and evening bridge for men and women. The Wednesday morning "Ladies Day with the YWCA" will continue.

According to Y director Pat Martinez, the new pre-registration plan will save time at the first meeting of the new classes and eliminate the disappointment involved in class cancellation for insufficient enrollment.

Those interested in any of the classes are invited to call the Y Office for further information, or attend the annual YWCA Valentine Party tomorrow at the Westlake Clubhouse from 1 to 3 p.m. to learn details.

Distribution of Food Subject for Grade 2

"The distribution of food" is a subject under discussion by the Second Grade classes of Mrs. Kathryn Gerdes and Mrs. Anne Byerly at Abraham Lincoln Elementary School.

After much discussion and committee reports on food, the class visited the supermarket at Skyline Plaza on Monday, February 11. There the students were conducted through the market where they not only saw where and how the food products were displayed, but were also given reasons for each type of display. They watched the meat trucks being unloaded and followed the meat into the large frozen lockers. The care and display of fresh vegetables was also explained. Members of the store's staff were introduced and the responsibility of each discussed.

The class was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Michael Baxes and Mrs. Paul Dab, class mothers, and Miss Gertrude Rushmore, student teacher from San Francisco State College.

WIZARD OF OZ—Dorothy and Toto play in "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz," playing at 1 and 3 p.m., February 22 at Colma School and February 23 at Benjamin Franklin School. Sara Eggert plays Dorothy and Toto plays himself.

First Graders Visit Public Library

The First Grade Class, Mrs. Lea Fox teacher, of Abraham Lincoln Elementary School, visited the Daily City Public Library on Southgate Drive on Friday, February 1. In preparation for the trip the students had discussed the use of a library, the importance of such a repository of books and references and the role the library member takes in belonging to a library. Each child had requested a membership card in advance and had with him a filled-out application for membership.

Upon arrival at the library the group stopped at the membership desk and completed their applications. They were informed that their cards will be available on February 14, at which time each child plans to check out a book.

SEAT BELTS FOR ALL STUDIED BY MAKERS

The auto industry is considering a plan to equip all new cars with seat belts, starting with 1964 models, United Press International reported.

The news service said Ford Motor Company has made the proposal to the Automobile Manufacturers Association and that AMA had held committee meetings on it. The AMA board may vote on the plan this month, according to UPI.

A spokesman for AMA said the plan had been considered at the committee level many times, particularly at times when state legislatures are going into session. However, he said, there are no plans at this time to have the plan placed before the AMA board.

Many states have considered laws making seat belts mandatory. New cars are now equipped with seat belts but do not carry the belts themselves as standard equipment.

Five states have laws requiring that cars be equipped with the belts. Some of the laws do not take effect until future model years. The states with such laws are Wisconsin, Virginia, Mississippi, Rhode Island and New York.

The UPI said that a majority of the auto companies favor installation of the belts, although the move would add about 75 million dollars a year to the cost of making cars.

Commenting on the report, Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said: "Nothing could make us happier." He said universal use of seat belts could save 5,000 lives a year.

MOST PROLIFIC WELLS

The world's most prolific oil and gas wells range from 5,000 to 12,000 feet deep, according to the National Automobile Club. The deepest reach more than 20,000 feet, about four miles into the earth.

tip-top condition—even if you're a do-it-yourselfer, that rare breed of the female species who can actually get under the hood, do it with regularity.

Car Accessory Business Is 'Here to Stay'

Among all the rosy predictions for 1963 that we have seen, none is more convincing than that of Mr. James B. Lightburn.

Prosperity or no—however things go—the automotive after-market industry (which is a fancy name for the parts and accessories replacement business) has only one way to go. And that is up!

His own end of the business, which is keeping cars and trucks and buses and tractors supplied with oil, air and gasoline filters, he assures us, is "depression-proof." More vehicles on the road—a record-breaking 78 million—mean more drivers; more drivers mean more miles; and more miles mean more filters. It's as scientific and mathematical as that to the Purulor vice-president and general sales manager.

"In good times," says Mr. Lightburn, "people buy new cars and service them periodically, while in bad times they hold onto their (once) new cars longer, replacing parts on a regular basis in order to maintain them in sound operating condition."

Two other factors favor his business, he says, whether the economic climate is fair or foul:

New car warranties (which tend to get longer and longer) are contingent on the owner having periodic maintenance performed—and filters and other replacement parts are NOT included in these warranties.

Those once-new compacts are now beginning to appear on the used-car lots—and that means additional sales for replacement items.

Further, it is Mr. Lightburn's opinion that today's cars are the finest ever built and he is warm in his praise of the manufacturers who were so right in their appraisal of the public desire for quality. And, of course, longer built-in life means more filters!

Carbon Monoxide Gas Is Subtle Killer

Colorless, odorless, tasteless carbon monoxide gas is one of the most subtle killers in the motoring world today.

Here is a killer that works with special effectiveness during these cold days of winter and early spring when drivers feel the nip in the air, decide to roll all those windows up tight to keep out the cold, and rely on their lights to give their signals. With a leak in the exhaust system and an almost airtight car, carbon monoxide gas can do a very fast job, indeed.

Brief exposure to even a slight concentration of this gas will make for changes in your physical and mental being that will greatly impair your driving skill. Brief exposure to a greater concentration of the gas will almost always end in death. You are seized by a helpless drowsiness and soon slip into an unconsciousness from which you never wake.

If you find yourself getting headachy or drowsy while driving, the National Automobile Club advises you to open the car windows immediately and let the fresh air stream through. If you find yourself quite often getting headachy and drowsy while driving your car, especially if the windows are closed, it's time to have the exhaust system carefully checked.

In older cars the exhaust system can develop little leaks. The exhaust gasket, which seals the joint between the exhaust manifold and the exhaust pipe, is particularly vulnerable. Exposed to great heats, this gasket often develops small leaks that don't reveal themselves by a change in the sound or the operation of the running motor. Having a thorough check of your exhaust system now will save you from serious trouble later.

Once the system has been thoroughly checked, and repaired if necessary, do not make the fatal mistake of running your car in a closed garage. Before you start the motor, open the doors wide. And as soon as you've started it, get your car out into the open. Avoid being killed by that subtle killer, carbon monoxide gas.

LARGE SUNDIAL

At Carefree, about half-an-hour's drive north of Phoenix in Arizona, you'll find, according to the National Automobile Club, one of the largest sundials in the world. Some 50 feet high, it has a 60-foot arm, a diameter of 90 feet, and a circumference of 284 feet.

California's first state highway was the Lake Tahoe Wagon Road acquired in 1895. Today, there are about 144,000 miles of rural and municipal roads, including more than 1,000 miles of high-speed freeways. All these roads are heavily traveled, for California has about 8 million automobiles and trucks, the largest number in any state. California has, in fact, almost 14 per cent of the nation's 59 million automotive vehicles.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

Do you know how to give artificial respiration—what to do about a burn—how to revive a person who faints—emergency procedures to take before professional help arrives? For many years the American Red Cross has been conducting first aid courses with first-aid certificates awarded upon completion of course. However, many times women who would like to take the course are unable to leave home.

Now right in the comfort of your own living room you can take the Red Cross first aid course over television. Starting March 4, KQED in cooperation with Red Cross Bay Area Councils will present a 12 week first-aid course with Dr. Harold Carnochan of S. F. State as instructor. Upon completion of a workbook and skills workshop the person will receive a standard Red Cross first-aid certificate.

The same course was offered last year at this time over Channel 9 and it was very successful. Among Daly City residents who received certificates were Thelma Miller, Marguerite Koval and Jeanne Murphy.

Just an idea—why not gather a few neighborhood gals together and watch the course together over a cup of coffee. Registration is $1 which includes textbook and workbook. Registration blanks will be available at supermarkets along the cash registers or write to KQED, 525 4th St., San Francisco, enclosing $1.

Television critics for an evening were three Daly City residents who were requested by KRON-TV to watch the Monday evening "Assignment Four" documentary titled "Children in Crisis" and turn in a report to the station. Those viewing the special program (all members of 17th District PTA board) included Mrs. Forrest Cunningham, district parliamentarian; Mrs. Art Hulse, financial secretary, and Mrs. Ken Killisple, historian.

COMING PROGRAMS: Scheduled for KTVU on Thursdays beginning this week three new travel-adventure series, "Expedition," "John Gunther's High Road" and "Bold Journey."

Welcome addition to KGO-TV Saturday morning schedule for the small fry "Santa's Village" featuring a different children's play presented "live" at 10:30 a.m.

Over KPIX special colorcast "A Look at Monaco" with Their Serene Highnesses Prince Rainier III and Princess Grace as hosts next Sunday, Feb. 17, 8 p.m.

Of interest to women four "Doctors at Work" episodes devoted to women's health problems to be shown Monday evenings, 10:30 p.m. beginning Feb. 26.

Matlock of the Army Recruiting Station at 2747 Mission street in San Francisco.

Westmoor Increases Faculty By Two

Westmoor has two new teachers this semester. Replacing Miss Sally Clark, who is now living in Hawaii, is Miss Rosemarie Cooper. Mrs. Natalie Freehling replaces Mr. Howard Miguel, who is on sick leave.

Miss Rosemarie Cooper, a swimming enthusiast, has entered the portals of Westmoor High School as a new physical education teacher.

At present she is putting her student teaching experience at Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley, by teaching five girls P.E. classes in basketball. Previously, when student teaching, she taught swimming, hockey, basketball, volleyball and body mechanics. Although swimming rates the top spot on her list of favorite sports, she prefers to teach body mechanics because she "finds the class very interesting."

Also new on the W.H.S. faculty is Mrs. Natalie Freehling, a language teacher. She received her B.A. at the University of California in 1960 and is presently working on her M.A. in English at the University of South Carolina. Spanish 1 and 2, and English 1 are the classes she teaches at Westmoor. Previously she has taught as a student teacher and a substitute, but never as a full-time high school teacher.

A Busy Time At Terra Nova

The last two weeks at Terra Nova have been very busy ones for everyone. Monday, January 28, until Wednesday, January 30, were the days for finals in all departments and so everyone was very busy studying and taking tests.

On Thursday, January 31, everyone came eagerly to school only to find out that there were no lights or heat in our building. Since Friday was already a holiday (it was a semester break) all students had a four-day weekend which was somewhat dampened by the rain.

On Saturday, February 2, the Seniors held a car wash at three gas stations in Pacifica to raise money for our Senior activities.

The car wash lasted from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. and the price to wash one car was $2.98. It was held at Fred and Warren's Richfield in Vallejo; Gene and George's Wilshire in Sharp Park; and Gordon's Shell in Pacific Manor. The Senior class officers, Sandy Finley, Eileen Nannery, Bob Mull and Ken Kirkland, were in charge of arrangements.

February 6 was a holiday of sorts for all the students in Mr. Delzell's Chemistry classes. They traveled to the Standard Oil Research Plant in Richmond.

The classes were hosted at an excellent lunch by the company. The outing lasted from 8:30 until 2:30 p.m. and was very educational as the class had just finished studying fuels and their byproducts.

Physics Teacher Wins Recognition

Westmoor High School's Mr. Stuart Mephram was recently recognized by the American Association of Physics Teachers for his outstanding work in the field of physics.

As a part of the Teacher Recognition Program, Mr. Mephram and approximately two dozen other teachers throughout the nation will be presented with a citation in recognition of their award.

Now in his second year at Westmoor, Mr. Mephram teaches not only physics, but also biology and survey of science. Before coming to Westmoor, he taught physics in Southern California.

Spirit Week To Begin February 18

"Madhatters" shall descend upon the hilltop of Westmoor High School Monday, February 18, and start off the annual spirit week festivities.

International Tuesday will feature costumes from various nations. Silent anticipation of the after-school competitive sports will prevail on Mute Day, and the brilliant Color Day will complete the four day merrymaking.

On the first day, Madhatter Day, students will show their talents and don gaily decorated hats. The more original the topper, the merrier the spirits. Costumes will be the "word" the second day, entitled International Tuesday. After Tuesday classes have finished, a varsity basketball game with the Jefferson Indians will be viewed by cheering fans from both sides.

Wednesday, at 8:10 a.m., marks the commencement of Mute Day, when students struggle to keep their spirit silent (unless, of course, to respond to a teacher's question).

Westmoorites are to remain "mute" until the after-school coed competitive games, at which they may yell at the top of their lungs for their favorite team.

Green, white, yellow and red will adorn the campus on Thursday, February 21, in the form of students wearing their class colors. Seniors are to have on white, juniors green, sophomores yellow, and freshmen red. Bleachers in the boys' gym will be gaily festooned by the color classed W.H.S.'ers for a rally before the "big" Westmoor vs. South City basketball game. At the rally, skits will be performed by the four classes, each hoping to win the spirit week plaque which is awarded at the rally to the class showing the most spirit during the week.

Local Demos Honor Anderson

Led by Lt. Governor Glenn M. Anderson's County Campaign Chairman, Joseph Greenberg of San Bruno, approximately fifty San Mateo Democrats attended a testimonial dinner at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco recently.

Among those present and in attendance were: Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan, County Committee Chairman Adolph C. "Bud" Harrison, F. Jose deLario, prominent South San Francisco attorney and currently being mentioned as possibly the next North County Municipal Judge, Mayor Joseph Verducci of Daly City, Councilman Ernest Conway of Brisbane, City Attorney Melvin Cohn of San Carlos, and District Attorney Keith Sorenson.

Temple Judea Holds Special Music Sabbath

Temple Judea will hold a special Jewish Music Sabbath this coming Friday night, February 15 at the Temple at 8:30 p.m., 95 South Mayfair, Daly City.

A special program highlighting Hasidic Jewish Music will be presented. Cantor Harold Wachter, who has been associated with Temple Judea since its beginning almost ten years ago, has been for many years a student of this type of music, and has made a specialization of this form of devotional prayer chanting that was developed several hundred years ago in the synagogues of Eastern Europe. The Hasidic Jew was especially concerned that his prayers to God be expressed in joyful tempos. The minor keys are constant throughout the music, but are dominated by this distinct type of joyful, prayerful chant.

Dr. Leonard Beck, distinguished organist and musicologist, will accompany Cantor Wachter in this musical presentation and service.

Temple Judea is also planning a musical presentation for April, "Resistance and Redemption." Those who are interested in joining with members of the Temple Judea Volunteer Choir to participate in rehearsals for this presentation, please call the Temple Office, PL 5-6362. SMOOTH FINISH
To get that satiny gloss finish on wood paneling like west coast hemlock or Douglas fir, be sure to sand down and rub the wood to a smooth-glass surface and then apply a sealer coat. After it has dried, you can apply any number of coats of plastics, varnishes or lacquers, rubbing down each coat after it dries. This will give you a furniture-smooth wall paneling or wood surface.

MORMON CHAPEL—At the corner of Hillside and Brunswick in Daly City, was completed in 1961. It is the home of three units of Latter Day Saints. The church was built from tithe of ten per cent of each member's income and with labor donated by members.

Mormon Chapel

The Mormon chapel at 1399 Brunswick, at the corner of Hillside and Mission is the home of three units of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. One of these is the San Francisco Stake; the others are the Daly City Ward and the Balboa II Ward which are divisions of the San Francisco Stake.

The chapel was completed in June 1961. It was built from tithe of ten per cent of each member's income and with labor donated by members.

The chapel contains about 25,000 square feet. It has a large chapel, a cultural hall that can be used as a gymnasium or an auditorium where plays and dances may be held. There are nineteen classrooms, a sewing room and offices for the San Francisco Stake and two wards.

Having no paid ministry, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints relies on prominent members to direct its activities, arrange its meetings and appoint its speakers and teachers. Mr. Irven G. Derrick, a resident of Daly City, is President of the San Francisco Stake. His jurisdiction extends over eight wards and two branches. His Counselors are M. Dale Ensign and David W. Alger.

The Daly City Ward consists of five hundred fifty members who live in the City of Daly City. The presiding officer is Bishop Samuel C. Chandler, who is the City Librarian for the City of Daly City. His Counselors are L. Kieth Hurst, who is a civil engineer and Rulor Brinkerhoff, who is a salesman. These men are assisted by one hundred twelve other persons who serve as teachers or officers of the Sunday School, the Mutual Improvement Association, the Relief Society, The Primary, and the Priesthood Quorums.

The Balboa II Ward has six hundred members living in the south eastern portion of San Francisco. The Bishop is

Local PTAs Decry Lack Of Family Films

Local PTA units have been discussing the local movie fare. They have decried the lack of films suitable for the entire family, adult films on the same bill with movies that are suitable for children, the showing of adult previews during family movies and the lack of enforcement of age limits announced in newspaper advertising. Movie advertising showing suggestive scenes, or scantily clad persons have also been hit by these concerned parents.

These problems have been taken to the PTA coordinating committee and the 17th District CCPT has been asked what action could be taken to improve these situations. As a result of requests a movie workshop was held by 17th District CCPT recently. Speakers on the panel were Mrs. Ruth Hedges, movies chairman for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers; Mrs. Warren Scott, president of Roy Clough PTA; Mr. Arthur Clough, local theater manager and Mr. Ned Harris, supervisor for Cooper Film Distributors. The workshop was directed by Mrs. Joel Yager, education chairman for 17th District CCPT.

Mrs. Scott posed questions to the panel that had been asked at individual PTA units. "What can we do as parents?" "Where can we go?" that the theater operators "Is Hollywood the place to go to assume their responsibilities when they continue to show such distasteful fare?"

Responsibilities Mrs. Hedges stated that the parents are shirking the movie situation has been their responsibility when they come what it is today because permit their children to sit at all levels involved have not found unsuitable movies either assumed their responsibilities because they do not care or she said that a democracy because they are uninformed such as ours cannot hope to about the subject matter. She said the struggle we are in is concerned about the latter gaged in today and cannot suggest that PTA could function properly without re-do more to improve the situation responsibilities being assumed by attending the movies by every individual. In the end are good and that every specific case of movies should inform the parents feels that the film producers about the suitable family are not assuming their responsibilities to encourage attendance. sibilities when they produce. As a parent, grandparent, poor subject matter films, retired teacher and movie reviewer for 30 years Mrs. Hedges feels that parents must act as their own censors now. She does feel that eventually legislation will be enacted regarding the subject matter of films, but far, far into the future. Presently the parents should either view the films prior to their children attending or accompany the children to the movies. Most of all she feels that the support of family films at the box office will produce more good family fare. Parents who feel that they will improve the film fare by staying away from all films are now learning that this action only makes the producers look for more sensational themes and more lurid scenarios to draw a box office crowd.

Mrs. Hedges felt that writing to Hollywood asking for better films would not accomplish as much as supporting films such as the now showing "Jumbo" at the box office. She cited "Jumbo" as THE outstanding family film in years.

Mr. Clough, the theater manager, backed up Mrs. Hedges' statement that support at the box office was the most important factor. As a theater manager he deals in a commodity, movies. He says that he must book fare at his theater that will pay, what he sells he shows. He said that he had had better response and better receipts from films of doubtful taste and little value than he had had from family fare. He feels that public should not blame the manager—he feels that the poor films showing at a given theater are the fault of those who pay to see them and that when box office appeal changed then so will the films.

While they disagreed where the responsibility lay, Mr. Clough and Mrs. Hedges agreed that movies are not what they used to be. They have each been in their respective roles for over 20 years and have noted a decline in quality subject matter and a change from a family type audience to an adult audience. They both agree that there is hardly any family fare available today. They agree that much film fare today is distasteful and demoralizing.

The topic of movie advertising in newspapers was noted and it was noted that some newspapers have made moves to improve the appearance of the ads placed in the papers. However it was noted that the advertising should not be misleading either showing that the film might be considered family fare when it is in actuality an adult film nor should it be misleading lurid advertising.

Mrs. L. E. Engleman has announced that another workshop will be held in the near future. The next workshop will be concerned with drive-in movies in particular.

Daniel Webster School News

Recent activities of Mrs. Ruth Rogers fourth grade class at Daniel Webster School include two study trips and participation in a "Spanish Fiesta" the culminating activity of the combined third classes of fourth grade pupils at the school.

For the Fiesta ninety children gathered in the multi-use room where Mrs. Rogers' class gave two plays. One, "Moonlight Markets" was original and showed how the trading was done in the settling of early California. The other, "Becky and the Bandit," was adapted from a story in the class reader. The children sang songs and danced. "La Rapa." Tortillas cooked by the teachers, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. D'Andrea and Mr. Notaro caused comments ranging from "Hummum, how good," to "they taste like paper!"

During one of the study trips musical instruments were of particular interest on the stop at the Cliff House. At the Mission Dolores, the children inspected the roof, colored with paint about a hundred years old, toured the cemetery looking at the statues and then sat on the rough seats in front of the chapel. One child said she was glad to be religious in 1963 because "these seats are sure cold."

The second field trip was to the Planetarium to see the "Vells of Venus." The lecturer simplified the explanation and the nine-and-ten year-olds went home with a better understanding of the planets and Solar System as well as the theory about the surface of Venus. The children thought the experience was "like a cool night," and the sky "like we saw at camp." Shooting stars delighted them.

Another class from Daniel Webster to visit Morrison Planetarium was the sixth grade, taught by Barbara Shiel. On January 23, the 37 pupils culminated their science unit on space by seeking more data on the Mariner II satellite and what the environment on Venus might be like. This information augmented class study and led to the writing of science fiction stories based on scientific facts.

Again on January 30, the combined classes of Miss Eunice Wright and Mrs. Bertha Kessler chose the Planetarium for resource information. Mrs. Dorothy Smith, former student teacher, accompanied the class. They also visited the Academy of Sciences.

In spite of wind and rain, they enjoyed, in addition to the information on Venus, the rocks and minerals, birds and other wild life. They liked, especially, seeing the animals in their natural habitat.

Recently the leave taking from Daniel Webster of Miss Raia Folkerts, student teacher from San Francisco State, with Mrs. Alice Elario as master teacher, provided a gay musical period. The primary children crowned Miss Folkerts "Queen for a Day" and presented her with a crown and a silver-trimmed cape and a bouquet.

Decorative cards carried appreciative messages for her six weeks of teaching. The children sang and played their rhythm instruments. Some of the songs were "The Angel Band," "My Bonnie," "La Cucaracha" and "Over the River."

Jeff High PTA Plans Founders Day Meet

The board meeting for Jefferson High School PTA was preceded by a "pot luck" dinner January 10. Mrs. Mendle Plansky, president, called the meeting to order.

The Founders Day program will be held February 14 at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria. It was announced by Mrs. R. Williams, chairman. The Belletones, sponsored by the Daly City recreation department, under the direction of Patty Stoltz will be featured.

A eulogy on the history of the Jefferson High School PTA from the year 1926 to 1962 will be presented by Mrs. A. Eason.

An honorary life membership pin will be presented to one of the many outstanding members by Mrs. D. Iwahashi, chairman.

Past presidents and honorary life members will be honored at this birthday party.

The hospitality chairman, Mrs. Rowe, is in charge of refreshments to be served.

Parents of Jefferson High School students may spend a very valuable hour, February 19 from 10 to 11 a.m., at the Memorial Building. Napoleon B. Triplett, dean of boys, will give an informative lecture with a question and answer period following. All parents are invited to attend.

Carnival Time At A. Lincoln

At the January 30 Abraham Lincoln board meeting, Mrs. Betty Bacon and Mrs. Bev Walsanen outlined the plans for the school's carnival on March 1.

The school's multi-use room will be decorated in a gay and colorful carnival theme. Many new and different booths will be set up along with surprises and prizes for all.

Hot dogs, pizza and doughnut booths, along with coffee and soft drink booths. Watch for the advance ticket sale date. The special feature will be the ticket drawing for the big door prize.

Remember, carnival time is March 1, from 6 to 9 p.m. in the Abraham Lincoln multi-use room.

Lesson on Chinatown

The third graders at Vista Mar are working on a new unit in social studies; "Greater San Francisco Bay Area." This unit was prepared at the County level through the cooperative efforts of many people in the districts and counties of the Bay Area.

Parents have been encouraged to enrich their children's experiences, since access to major portions of the Bay Area Counties lend themselves to week-end drives with the family. A form was sent home to parents, wherein they were requested to respond if they had any materials or a c a k g r o u n d information which they were able to share with the 3rd graders.

One parent, Mrs. Janet Gunthrop, has a classmate, Winnie Lum, who has been acting in the capacity of a student assistant at the Frederick Burke School, which is connected with S.F.S.C. and who has a very interesting lesson on "Chinatown." Vista Mar students were, therefore, very fortunate, on Friday, February 8, 1968, when Miss Lum talked to the children and brought visual material with her in the form of paintings, clothing, an abacus, her own Chinese school books, and other items of interest. This presentation was most worthwhile since it gave the children evidence and comparison of the culture that is different but one that is within our own social cultural environment.

The 4th grade classes were also invited to share in this presentation, since they are studying a unit on California.

Miss Helena Frissael, an exchange student from Stockholm, Sweden, attending Westmoor High School, will be the guest speaker for the third Founders Day program of the Daniel Webster PTA. The unit meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 20, 1968, at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the Daniel Webster School, 425 El Dorado Drive, Daly City.

Study Dairy Process

Miss Susan Shaffer's second grade class from Vista Mar School, took a very interesting educational tour in relation to their social science unit Monday, February 4, to the Spreckles Russell Dairy in San Francisco.

The children were told and shown the procedure of making ice cream. They were also shown how raw milk is brought to the dairy plant from the farms, the processing of how milk becomes homogenized, as well as learning the reason why milk should be processed before they can drink it were involved in the tour.

The children were then taken to watch the processed milk being dispensed into cartons and the procedure of loading the trucks so that the milk can be delivered to the markets and the community can benefit from this service.

As a happy conclusion to their trip the boys and girls were treated to chocolate milk and ice cream bars which was enjoyed by all.

Valentine's Day

"Valentine Day" at Vista Mar has special meaning for students, since this is the day scheduled for individual and class pictures. This day is generally programmed, since it provides parents an opportunity to have a permanent memory of their child at a particular age level.

Integrated also with "Valentine Day" are many creative art activities, and techniques, as well as language activities which supplant the original "Valentine Box" of yesteryear, and encourage creativity on the part of children.

Top Citizens at Chris. Columbus

Each month the 5th and 6th grade classes at Christopher Columbus Elementary School select two students from each room who have shown fine qualities of leadership, citizenship, service and/or achievement. Valentine's Day

"Valentine Day" at Vista Mar has special meaning for students, since this is the day scheduled for individual and class pictures. This day is generally programmed, since it provides parents an opportunity to have a permanent memory of their child at a particular age level.

Integrated also with "Valentine Day" are many creative art activities, and techniques, as well as language activities which supplant the original "Valentine Box" of yesteryear, and encourage creativity on the part of children.

"PINHEADS"—that's what telephone people call these little diodes, first cousins to the transistor. And no wonder, it would take more than 1,000 of them to fill a thimble! Designed by Bell Telephone Laboratories, each pinhead's a little sandwich of specially treated silicon wafers with glass in the middle. It's heat-bonded, plated with nickel and gold, and comes out a whopping 35-thousandths of an inch in diameter by 15-thousandths thick.

But looks are deceiving. Pinheads do a big job as super-sensitive "gates," or switches, for controlling current flow in electronic circuitry. They're used in computers for missile and space projects, and will ultimately be used in the high-speed electronic telephone switching systems of tomorrow.

From bulldozers to bridal gowns to beekeepers... whatever you may need, if there's someone in town who sells or serves, you'll find them fast in the Yellow Pages of your telephone book.

In fast-growing California, keeping phone books up-to-date is a big job. There are over 4,000,000 names, addresses and phone numbers in the white pages of some 60 books. Not to mention all the Yellow Pages. To assure accuracy, we check each listing six times before printing. And when the presses roll, they roll at 22 miles an hour, turning out—on the average—a new phone book for a different California community every week.

Dec. Earnings Up
December earnings of Bay Area manufacturing production workers rose to an all-time high of $120.75 per week, a gain of $3.46, or 2.9 per cent, from December, 1961, Ernest B. Webb, California director of industrial relations, announced this week.

After allowing for federal and state taxes and the rise of consumer prices over the year, the "real" spendable earnings of a factory worker averaged 1.3 per cent above a year ago.

Average hourly earnings remained at the record level of $3.05 per hour set in November and were above a year ago by 8 cents.

Mothers' March Yields $5,180 In Daly City

Donations in Daly City to the vital Mothers' March of the 1963 "Silver Anniversary" March of Dimes campaign totalled "highest in any city in the county on the rainy evening of this important event in our area," it was announced this week.

James J. Kehoe, chairman of the San Mateo County chapter of the national foundation, in making the announcement of current results to date in the Mothers' March on January 20, lauded Mrs. Ernest Bloom, 97 Midvale in Daly City, for "her fine leadership again this year which made possible this outstanding record along with her many devoted marching mothers and area captains."

The total at this time in Daly City stands at $5,180.09, according to figures given the chapter county headquarters in San Mateo.

"We believe with this fine showing in Daly City that our total for the 1963 Mothers' March, despite the sudden rain and wind storm, will pass $50,000 in San Mateo County," Chairman Kehoe said.

He added that "while this is somewhat less than in 1962, a year ago, it is a splendid showing that these loyal volunteer women and a few men, too, rang doorbells throughout the county, and simply refused to give up because of the storm that discouraged many others of the Marching Mothers that night."

Second and nearest to Daly City in the totals to date was Redwood City with a total to date of $4,518.52, an increase there over their low of 1962, last year, but still more than $1,000 under the top figure of Daly City.

Volunteer leaders joined Chairman Kehoe in suggesting that "anyone missed the evening of the Mothers' March are urged to send in their donations to the March of Dimes at our county headquarters now to 5 West 37th avenue, San Mateo."

Local Boy In Jungle Warfare Exercise Drum II

Marine Lance Cpl. James V. Van Winkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Winkle of 889-D street, Colma, is serving with the First Battalion of the Ninth Marine Regiment, which was part of the combined United States-Thailand forces engaged in Exercise Jungle Drum II during January.

The exercise, involving 13 ships of both navies and Marines from both countries, was the largest assault ever staged on the Asian mainland by forces of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Jungle Drum was staged to provide training for both countries in jungle fighting. Amphibious landing tactics, dispersal techniques, and aerial amphibious assault were stressed throughout the exercise.

Two forces clashed in the mock exercises, near Sattahip, Thailand. The exercise began January 12 and ended on January 21.

An Honest Position

We must commend the Daly City council for the forthright way in which they are approaching the proposed annexation of the Bayshore area.

The Daly City council has made a point that they will not actively try to interrupt the proceedings of Brisbane in its annexation of the Bayshore industrial lands. Brisbane made the first move to acquire this land and has priority right to proceed under the law. If their procedure is not correct, the suits of Bayshore residents will bring this to light and then Daly City can properly make its move.

Desirable as it would be for Daly City to have all or a portion of the industrial lands in Bayshore, the "hands off" position of the city council is the right step at the present time.

Man Of The People

If, as the poet said, Abraham Lincoln walks at midnight, perchance the righteous among us might find a way to absorb, through his presence, some of the basic love, the basic concern, the basic inspiration which guided him from obscurity to a noble immortality. It was Lincoln's love for other men, his concern for their well-being and their rights, and the inspiration he found in their inherent, God-given dignity that guided his every thought and move.

"As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy."

"With malice toward none; with charity for all—to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

"Why should there not be a patient confidence in the ultimate justice of the people? Is there any better or equal hope in the world?"

As the man who said those words walks the long midnight path, what does he think of Ole Miss, of segregation—de facto or real—of Katanga, of all the other evidence that man has not yet achieved the ideal of malice toward none? Whatever his thoughts or answers, one can be sure they would be based upon what he in his great heart of hearts thought was right, was just, was ordained for all the people.

More Than Coronets

February is national Heart Month, the time of year when the American Heart Association asks us to look deep into our own hearts and find there the compassion, the generosity to help those whose hearts are having trouble helping them.

Our generation has seen magnificent strides by medical science in the techniques of correction, treatment, prevention of diseases and malfunctions of the body's life center. Much of these gains have been made possible by the dimes, dollars and checks from sympathetic fellow citizens. There is room for much more progress, need for much more financial assistance.

Kind hearts, as Tennyson said, are indeed more than coronets. They are hearts that give so others may live; that prompt generosity so that feeble bodies may become strong, and in turn contribute their strength to the nation that so needs a sound and vigorous citizenry.

The Bible—Best Gift to Mankind

Affairs Of State

By Henry C. MacArthur
Gov. Edmund G. Brown's 1963-64 budget message raises some questions, not the least of which is what happened to his much-vaunted "fiscal responsibility" program which he emphasized during his first term in office.

It is no surprise that the budget is the biggest in the history of California, and, in fact, the biggest that the long-suffering taxpayers of any state have had to confront. In the midst of profligacy, this was to be expected. The governor dismisses the size of the budget with the remark that California is the "biggest state," so apparently, it can be expected to have the biggest budget.

Again, the governor is dipping into bond funds to finance California's annual expenditures. He asks for a total expenditure of $3,250,401,969, but of this sum, only $2,945,027,761 comes from current income, which leaves $305,374,208 to come from sale of state bonds, or almost ten per cent of the total expenditure.

This, no doubt, can be accomplished without the sale of additional state bonds, for the current year, at least, and a good part of the bond money expenditure will be repaid by funds other than those contributed by the taxpayers, such as the state water bonds. But the future is something else again.

The governor's program for advance payment of taxes also raises some questions. If it were enacted, he claims the state could meet its commitments for the next two fiscal years without hardship, which means without tax increases.

But, the advantage would be wiped out by 1965, when the possibility of a new tax problem would loom.

However, this possibility is dismissed by the governor, who says studies reveal the gap between expenditures would lessen, rather than widen. He attributes this happy situation to the president's tax cut program, and to his proposed withholding tax for California, which he says would show how much escapement is being indulged in at the present time. Also, he hopes for increased revenues from Long Beach oil tidelands, and he has asked for the excess from tideland revenue be earmarked for education.

The only trouble with this reasoning is that the president's tax cut program hasn't gone through Congress, and his own suggestions for a state withholding tax hasn't gone through the state legislature.

There are grave questions as to whether either of the programs will be enacted, at least as they are contemplated at the present time, and also as to whether if they are enacted in modified form, they will be of any benefit at all to the taxpayer, who now finds himself spending more and more time working for government, without any prospect at all of surcease from such labors.

So the governor's program is based largely on "supposition." So far, he has been lucky, having had only once to impose additional taxes on the people. Everyone hopes his luck will hold out.

THE SACRAMENTO SCENE

Obscenity for obscenity's sake, rather than as an incidental part of art, would be outlawed under two bills introduced in the legislature on Tuesday by Assemblyman Howard J. Thelin (R-Glen Dale).

The first bill, similar to others which have been introduced this year, would delete the language in the present law which provides material is obscene only when it "is matter which is utterly without redeeming social importance." Thelin said this rendered present laws against pornography useless.

Thelin's bill provides that redeeming social importance could be a matter of defense "provided that such obscenity is merely incidental and essential to the dominant desirable objective."

"This change in the law places the matter of social importance in its proper perspective and protects the valuable literary and artistic work which may incidentally contain what might be obscene matter and yet at the same time revises our definition of obscenity by strengthening it and bringing our definition into closer conformity with that which has been enunciated by the Supreme Court of the United States," Thelin said.

Thelin's second bill makes changes in procedures for bringing actions against alleged obscene matter. It would permit a district attorney to bring an action against any matter which appears obscene to him to have the matter declared obscene by an obscenity jury. The district attorney would file a petition and a copy of this petition would be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county involved.

The petition would be served personally on the author and publisher if their identity were known.

The bill provides that, at the hearing on the issue of obscenity, the only evidence to be presented would be that of the author, publisher and distributor. The judge would instruct the jury as to the legal definition of obscenity and that a "preponderance of evidence is necessary to support a determination of obscenity. Protection against abuse by an obscenity jury would be safeguarded by a requirement that three-fourths of the members of the jury must take an affirmative vote.

Thelin said the principal benefit of the two measures is that it would set up a separate trial for the decision on whether the material was obscene, without any consideration of criminal penalties. When the matter came up for criminal trial, if it did, the question of obscenity already

The View From Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

The Establishment . . .

Frank Duffy runs a clean place. He has a business license and a state liquor license, and he runs a tavern on Mission Street in Daly City. Mr. Duffy is renowned for his dislike of both overindulgence and ungentlemanly acts. He tolerates no disturbances in his establishment, and his philosophies have been adopted by his bartenders.

On this day a customer enters the establishment. He is dressed in workman's clothing, and he obviously put in a hard day's work. He is a tremendous man, several inches above six feet tall, perhaps something less than half as broad, with a rough-cut physiognomy and no apparent excess flesh on his frame. It is cold and wet outside, but this man's shirt is rolled up at the sleeves, and his bicep muscles ripple like the village blacksmith's.

As sometimes happens in the best run of establishments, the place finds that a drunken person is present. Mr. McGuire, the bartender, politely refuses to produce the glass that is ordered by the man. The big man wanders about, bothering the customers, and generally upsetting the peacefulness of the scene. He is loud, and uncouth, and handsy.

The Edict . . .

McGuire tells the man that it is time to leave, and that he will not serve him. The man has a friend in tow, who tries his level best to get the man to go home. After several false starts, the big man returns to sit upon a stool and converse loudly and uncouthly with anyone and everyone within hearing—and very few are out of hearing of this person.

The Phone Call . . .

Red McGuire reluctantly places a phone call to the station. Will someone kindly come on down and remove a would-be and unwanted customer from the place? So the police dispatcher speaks into his microphone and he sends a couple of radio cars to the location.

Two officers arrive shortly after the call, and they speak with the oversized man. They are polite, and pressed, and polished, and gentlemanly, and several inches shorter than the derrick-like heavyweight to whom they speak.

The Discussion . . .

It takes a while for the officer's verbal remonstrations to penetrate the alcoholic haze which clouds the big man's reasoning. It's time to leave, they suggest. Can they get him a cab, or does he prefer to accompany his friend?

The giant is insulted. He is not ready to leave. Would they care to try to eject him physically?

Now the officers are capable men. Although together they are not much larger than this one drunken man, they are probably able to take him, if necessary. If not, and even if so, other officers will shortly be on the way, if necessary—but, as gentlemen, they try to talk the man out of the bar.

Police work sometimes comes to this, these very basic things. Should they be unable to talk the man out, they may eventually have to proceed to remove him bodily by employing direct physical force—and this is a very large, rough man.

And as things are looking, the brawl is about to start, because the drunk states that he is not about to leave because he is not yet ready.

The Old Sarge . . .

Enter the veteran Sergeant Benedetti, who habitually backs up his patrolmen on their "physical" calls. He looks over the scene, mature and competent appearing. He is a real member of an old breed, the Sergeant, with many years of service represented by multiple service stripes on his sleeve. He has looked on many a bar beef, and has settled some, too, and has the broken knuckles to show for it.

The Sergeant knows the situation, and he knows the unfortunate, recalcitrant inebriate, too, somewhat. He speaks, and people listen, though he has seldom been known to raise his voice. Sergeant Benedetti's calm, competent, knowing, bored voice takes charge.

"Come on, Sam." Call him that, for he is an honest working man, although very dangerous, potentially, at this moment.

"Come on, Sam, I said, we've got to go now." "I'm not ready to go yet—and besides no one is going to put me out."

The voice raises an octave, but is still flat, and calm, and competent sounding, and somewhat bored: "Come on, Sam, we've got to go now. Come on, I said."

The Exit . . .

Sam goes, mumbling. The disturbance is abated. The officers and the friend pour the big man into the friend's auto, for the journey home.

The officers would have handled the situation, eventually; but no one was sorry to see the old Sarge on the scene, operating with class and maturity, from the summit of many years of hard street experience.

As we said, Mr. Duffy runs a clean place—and Sergeant Benedetti, when he is on duty, runs a peaceful city.

Letters To The Editor

Editor:

Thank you for printing the account of my installation in your edition of Jan. 30. It is truly a special thrill for each of these young girls who are serving as officers (average age, 14 years) to see their name in print, many of them for the first time.

I know they are carefully pasting a copy of the item in their scrapbooks, as am I, to serve as a treasured remembrance. No doubt you receive hundreds of such accounts and lists of names, and perhaps the "news" value is not too great, but I just wish you could have heard the eager chatter and rush of enthusiasm that came into our Bethel along with your paper, plus the gleam of pride in their parents' eyes.

I do want to express a real appreciation for the recognition you have given Bethel 94 and the organization it represents and again, my personal thanks to you for this individual attention.

Sincerely,
Kay Gilman

Dear Editor:

Thank you kindly for the prompt action in publishing the articles about our Recovery group in your newspaper. It resulted in far better attendance at the Leadership Training Courses than we had expected. We have also heard from interested persons who never knew of the availability of our organization.

We are truly grateful for any publicity we can get on the local level. Recovery is something that we must continuously make available to those who need it when they are desperate.

Many thanks for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
DOROTHY LAWRENCE,
Daly City Group Leader.

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

Once again the ugly cries of self appointed book censors have been heard in the Bay Area but not in Daly City. For this the people of Daly City are to be congratulated.

Censorship is a disease that tears cities apart and delays the forward movement of knowledge and enlightenment.

History shows that censorship has failed in every age and among every people where it has been tried. History shows that censors have failed to realize that suppression of recorded words, however vile, makes them live.

As George Bernard Shaw observed the censors have perpetuated immorality, superstition, malice, prejudice and vulgarity.

The tactics of censors seldom vary. Their approach can be anticipated and should be published so they can be recognized. The most common have been listed in an excellent article by Edwin Castagna that appeared in the Library Journal of Feb.

1. A threatening attitude. They usually try to put the fear of the Lord into you right at the start. And you can see yourself up to your ears in trouble before you can turn a hand.

2. Belief in personal superiority. I have never met a censor who thought he was hurt by what he wanted suppressed. But he was convinced others would be gravely injured.

3. Absolute lack of a sense of humor. I wonder sometimes how censors can stay alive and be so grim. Laughter to them is a foreign language. A witticism is an indication of treason.

4. Making the part stand for the whole. The censor often gets the jump on everybody else by suggesting past questionable associations of an author. Another favorite device is to point to a supposed subversive phrase or a dirty word here and there that everybody knows anyway. And he tries to make it seem that these often incidental factors are true for the whole book.

5. The desire to conceal something even if it is true. Do they see themselves? Some of their own suppressed desires?

6. Lack of knowledge of literature. Often censors are incredibly ignorant, without the slightest understanding of the creative mind.

7. No understanding of history. Censors don't realize that their game is one of the oldest and most unsuccessful in the world.

8. No belief in freedom of expression. Censors usually ride roughshod over the best intellectual traditions of the Western world, the Constitution and the Bill of Rights.

9. A tendency to bypass and disregard well-established policies and procedures. Along with their unwillingness to face the facts of history, censors generally don't like to be confronted with obstacles in the way of policies, regulations, and well-established practices.

Toto's Restaurant Has 24 Years Experience In Italian Cookery

Toto's Restaurant and Pizzeria derive their name from Antonio Spadarella, who first established the family in the restaurant business 24 years ago (1899) in Brooklyn.

After World War II the family joined the Westward movement and opened their first San Francisco restaurant in North Beach. The fame of Toto's food spread, and in 1949 the restaurant moved into its larger quarters at 2625 Mission.

The dedication of the Spadarella family to quality and service brought fame to Toto's pizza, and its popularity soon forced the restaurant to launch home-delivery service.

To keep up with Toto's widening range of patrons Frank purchased the Junipero Serra restaurant in 1957 to better accommodate the Daly City customers. Within three years it was necessary to expand.

The newly remodeled Toto's Restaurant, 1913 Junipero Serra, was designed by architect Donald Sandy, who incorporated traditional Italian and contemporary themes. The expanded restaurant represents an investment in excess of $150,000.

The enlarged dining room will now handle up to 130 patrons. The private dining room will handle parties up to 50. The added cocktail lounge, with a distinctive sunken fireplace, will seat 35.

The colorful photo-murals, Italian scenes, in the cocktail lounge and dining room were personally taken by Frank and Ida Spadarella on their recent European trip.

Both restaurants feature distinctive dishes native to individual sections of Italy. Frank, who is also an authority on pizza, carried out extensive research on preparation of these popular dishes while he was in Italy.

Toto's combined staff exceeds 45 employees on a full-time basis, and uses 7 to 10 part-time delivery men for home-delivery service.

For take-outs, delivery or reservations, dial T-O-T-O adding the prefix PL 6 for Daly City or VA 6 for the Mission street restaurant.

Einstein Show At Planetarium

Dr. Albert Einstein, one of the greatest minds of the 20th century, contributed a new view of the universe.

Through his unusual ideas, scientists, mathematicians, as well as philosophers, were forced to change many concepts previously held. Some of these fundamental concepts are explored in the new astronomy show at Morrison Planetarium at the California Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park now open to the public. The title: "Einstein and Relativity."

In this show, a requested repeat of an earlier one given at Morrison, many of Einstein's ideas are presented in such a manner that makes them understandable to everyone. Audiences will learn how this great scientist viewed the world.

Graphically, some of his proposals were substantiated by astronomical discoveries and these are examined during the hour-long presentation. Through his many great contributions, Dr. Einstein has changed the course of history.

"Einstein and Relativity" is presented daily, Wednesday through Sunday, at 3:30 and 8:30 p.m., with extra matinees at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. One performance only on Tuesdays at 3:30 p.m., and the Planetarium is closed on Mondays.

The show will run through March 3. Admission is 75 cents for adults and 40 cents for juniors.
